CIVIL SOCIETY IN NEPAL: A SELECTIVE BIBLIOGRAPHY

This is a bibliography about civil society in Nepal. We have focused on writings on non-governmental organizations, international non-governmental organizations, and associations. It includes books, booklets, theses, reports, and articles published in journals, books, magazines related to civil society in Nepal. Newspaper articles have not been included here. To make it easy for users, we have divided the entries into six sub-themes: general, policy and legal environment, democracy and governance, economic and social development, social movement, and public sphere. However, these divisions are only provisional and many entries would have fit into other sub-themes.

We prepared the first version of this bibliography by initially merging entries from previous bibliographies on civil society, NGOs and INGOs, prepared by Martin Chautari (MC) colleagues. We also checked the Tribhuvan University Central Library (TUCL) online catalog for additional materials. We have also collected entries from working bibliographies on different themes prepared by Kailash Rai, Rukh Gurung, Devraj Humagain, Shyam Kunwar, Avash Bhandari, J.B. Bishwokarma and Nischal Regmi. We want to thank them all.

In the second version, we have mainly added extra materials and created a new sub-theme (namely, policy and legal environment). We also checked two magazines, Himāl (from 2003 to 2020) and Nepal (2017 to 2020) at their respective websites.

In this third version, we have included entries from five additional magazines: Mūlyāñkan (2049 v.s.–2069 v.s. ), Hākāhākī (2055 v.s.–2071 v.s.), Vikās (2049 v.s.–2059 v.s.), Spotlight (2001–2004) and Face to Face (1996–1999). We also added old materials not included in the previous versions as well as new ones available online.

We will update this bibliography by adding the writings missing in this version. For suggestion, please contact us at tamangsanjeela@gmail.com and harsha.maharjan@gmail.com
