Some Recent Articles on Kathmandu: A Short Bibliography

This is a short working (obviously incomplete) bibliography of mostly recent journal articles and chapters in edited volumes in English (with one exception) related to the city/valley of Kathmandu and some aspects of its contemporary society. Books are not included here. We are uploading this list in the hope that it will be useful to students in Nepal and elsewhere who are thinking about doing new research on/in/related to Kathmandu. Other researchers should feel free to write to one of us (Onta; email: sinhas@mos.com.np) with information about relevant missing items that should be included here. We would be grateful for any such suggestion.
